Ignoring this advice, could possibly lead to the implementation of a seriously inferior alternative method compared to the compendial. Alternative Microbiological Methods: A Workshop on Current Status and Future Directions of Compendia Standards March 16-17, 2015, USP Headquarters, Rockville, MD.

Alternative Microbiological Methods: A Workshop on Current ...

In this year's workshop, different approaches for the validation of alternative microbiological methods will be presented on the basis of case studies by microbiologists and statisticians. In particular, the statistical approach will be considered and subsequently the advantages and disadvantages will be discussed.

Pre-Conference Workshop - European Microbiology Conference

Attend the 2020 PDA Rapid Microbiological Methods Workshop virtually to gain meaningful insight and practical lessons learned from actual success stories on important issues currently facing the industry. Explore the current landscape for rapid method validation strategies, implementation opportunities, and global regulatory approval processes.

2020 PDA Rapid Microbiological Methods Workshop

•The USP Alternative Microbiological Methods Workshop, March 16-17, 2015 at the USP Headquarters attracted 66 registrants and invited speakers from the FDA, EDQM, JP, pharmaceutical industry and academia. •The revisions to USP <1223> Validation of Alternative Microbiological Methods and plans for compendial rapid sterility test were discussed.

1223VALIDATION OF ALTERNATIVE MICROBIOLOGICAL METHODS. INTRODUCTION. The purpose of this chapter is to provide guidance for validating methods for use as alternatives to the official compendial microbiological methods. For microbial recovery and identification, microbiological testing laboratories sometimes use alternative test methods to those described in the general chapters for a variety of reasons, such as economics, throughput, and convenience.

Invitation to the European Microbiology Conference 2020 with pre-conference workshop. Dear Colleague, I cordially invite you to the European Microbiology Conference (EMC) and the Workshop on Alternative/Rapid Microbiological Methods 2020 of the ECA Academy in Barcelona, Spain. The conference has been taking place for 12 years now. The positive feedback of the participants and speakers made the EMC an annual event which informs about current developments and trends in pharmaceutical ...
